When did women get the right to vote?
1789: voting was restricted to white men who were property owners
1828: the presidential election was the first in which non-property-holding white men could vote in a vast majority of states
1870: African American men granted the right to vote by the 15th Amendment. States cannot deny the right to vote on grounds of "race, color, or previous conditions of servitude"
1920: Women granted the right to vote by the 19th Amendment (white women)
1924: All Native Americans are granted citizenship and the right to vote, regardless of tribal affiliation
1943: Chinese immigrants granted the right to citizenship and the right to vote by the Magnuson Act
1965: Protection of voter registration and voting for racial minorities is established by the Voting Rights Act of 1965
1975: Amendment to the Voting Rights Act provides protection from discrimination for language minority citizens

CFT, in conjunction with other funders, is opening up a special funding opportunity to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the 19th amendment. There will be a separate LOI application and workshop for this process.

The 19th Amendment Centennial LOI seeks to partner with organizations to create a yearlong series of events to recognize the 100th anniversary of women’s right to vote. Funding will support effective, inspirational and authentic ways to create conversation, drive positive change and build strategies to advance gender equity.

Women’s Right to Vote Centennial
Girl Scout Patch Program
Stacy Cushing
Senior Director of Girl Experience
Girl Scouts in Texas will learn about the history surrounding the 19th amendment and explore the 45 year period starting in 1920 when the 19th amendment was ratified up to the 1965 Civil Rights Act where all people were given the right to vote.

Girls will be asked to discover, connect and take action as they apply the lessons learned 100 years ago to today's world and what they can do make the world a better place.

All 8 Texas Girl Scout Councils are participating.
The curriculum was designed for Girl Scouts to earn a patch, but can be applied to any learning experience to teach students more about the 100th Anniversary of the 19th amendment.

The curriculum length is 2-4 hours average and can be broken into separate sessions.

Patch Facts

- Discover
  - Explore the history of the right to vote

- Connect
  - Complete activities to understand how this affects their life and community

- Take Action
  - Make a difference in their community through their efforts.
